

“Lisa didn’t just help me organize my closet, she changed my life! She helped me rid myself of the clutter that was weighing me down and making it a challenge to get dressed. With her kind, but firm guidance, I was able to let go of the clothes that didn’t work for me and free up space in my closet and myself. I learned so much through this process and couldn’t imagine doing it with anyone else.

Now, I can’t wait to get dressed because I have so many new outfits that I know look fantastic on me (and most are with clothes I already owned!). Lisa is incredibly kind and caring, but firm and focused – the perfect combination to guide you through this process. I think she was born to do this!

Thanks, Lisa, for making my closet a happy place again. ” ~ Carol,
